

Policy on No Shaming on Platforms

1. Platform Choice is Personal All users are free to use the system of their choice, including ASL3, HamVoIP, or any compatible system. No user may pressure or force another to switch platforms.
2. No Platform Wars / Political Debates Arguments about which system is better or attempts to discredit another system are not allowed. Respectful discussion is permitted.
3. Respectful Guidance Only You may share experiences and help when asked. You may not pressure, shame, or repeatedly push a platform choice.
4. Enforcement Violations may result in a warning and, if continued, removal or blocking from the system.
5. Purpose of This Reflector This system is for experimentation, learning, communication, and fellowship—not division or arguments.

Summary: Use what you want. Don't force others. Keep it respectful. No platform wars. Violations may result in removal.

Contact: For any issues or questions, please contact Logan (K8LRC) via QRZ.